New Travelodge for Sydney CBD

On April 4th of this year Toga Hospitality entered into an agreement to operate, on an exclusive basis, Travelodge Hotels in Australia. At the time Mr Allan Vidor, Managing Director of Toga Hospitality stated, "Toga Hospitality's growth strategy for Travelodge includes expansion across Australia and into New Zealand".

Only a short time on, we are proud to announce that the expansion has already begun. The Corus Hotel in Sydney has been purchased by the JF Meridian and NRMA joint venture, the York Street hotel will be rebranded Travelodge Wynyard and will be operated by Toga Hospitality from June 30th, 2005.

Travelodge Wynyard is ideally situated right next door to all of Sydney's wonderful attractions, whether you are looking for an exciting day in the city, to experience the lifestyle, or a sensational night out on the town. For the business traveller it is within the heart of the CBD adjacent to Wynyard railway station. In addition to the 270 guest rooms, facilities include a restaurant and bar, as well as extensive facilities for meetings.

Toga Hospitality currently operates 33 strategically located Apartment Hotels and Hotels in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide, Perth and Canberra. This comprises of Medina Apartment Hotels (19 locations), Vibe Hotels Australia (5 locations) and Travelodge (9 Locations) which is in excess of 4,000 apartments and hotel rooms.
